The path has been replaced, for the closure or diversion of the path, by Birmingham City Council (Birmingham Sewage Disposal Works) Public Path Diversion Order 1998, which specified a width of 2.5m for the new path. The Order was confirmed by the Secretary of State on 26 February 1998, and became operative on 9 April 1998.

The east end of the path, which is in Warwickshire, is in the reference parish. A consultation on a further proposed diversion, which was carried out in May 2007.

The path is recorded on the (undated) City Council map of open spaces, and should be recorded as such.
